

St. Columba Catholic Church

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Parish Céilí, Saturday November 7 — band, dancing and soda bread in the hall. Everyone welcome, no steps required.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear friends,

The Gospel this week asks a plain question: what are we doing with what we have been given? Not what we plan to do once things settle down — what we are doing now, this week, with this day.

Look down the page. There is something here for you: an hour of prayer, a meal that needs hands, a neighbour who needs a ride to Mass. Pick one. That is how a parish is built, and it is how a life is, too.

If you are new, or back after a long while — welcome home. Find me after Mass; I would like to know your name.

Rev. Declan Murray

THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

Thursday Trad Session — every week

Parish hall

Fiddles, whistles, a bodhrán and a pot of tea. Bring an instrument or just bring yourself — listeners make the best audience.

Missa de Nossa Senhora Aparecida

Church, then the hall

The feast of the patroness of Brazil: Mass in Portuguese and English, a candlelit procession around the churchyard, and supper in the hall afterward. Todos são bem-vindos.

Parish Céilí

Parish hall

A live band, a caller to teach every dance, soda bread and brown bread, and the Brazilian youth group's brigadeiros. $10 a family, children free.
